

A-SPIRE PLAYERS' 2018 SUMMER THEATRE FESTIVAL

Showtimes are at 8pm Fridays & Saturdays, 2:30 Sundays – Doors open 30 minutes prior
Tickets $15 at Tergesons' General Store 1 week before shows or by reservation at (204)642-8079
For more information visit www.aspireplayers.ca

Every WEDNESDAY at 7pm May 30-Aug 29

JC's Vaudevillian Showcase

The biggest show in town! Featuring amateur, intermediate and headlining performers from around the region. No show July 25

June 1-3

Dramatic Theatre Company

A Song At Twilight* by Noel Coward

The bittersweet comedy in the story of a cosmopolitan author caught in his declining years between two women, one being his wife of twenty years, and the other, one of his former loves. Come find out why this show was called Coward at his best!

June 8-10

Broken Record Productions

Italian American Reconciliation* by John Patrick Shanley

A dark comic romance of one man's struggle for love and happiness. He can't regain his manhood until he woo's and wins his ex-wife one more time.

June 15-17 "Double Bill"

Dark Horse Theatre

Hamlet Chapter Two - Back in Black* by Mike Secombe

The sequel to Hamlet – Also the making of the sequel to Hamlet, the aftermath of the making of a sequel to Hamlet, and why one should never make a sequel to Hamlet.

Beau Theatre Company

Tuesdays and Sundays* by Daniel Arnold & Medina Hahn

William and Mary relive their initial giddy courtship, the overwhelming passions of first love, and the fear and terrible consequences which ultimately turns their love affair into a tragedy.

June 22-24

Beau Theatre Company

Women of Manhattan* by John Patrick Shanley

Three women struggle to answer some of life's toughest questions. Through hardships and each other's support, they can each find some truth/ They have a fiery love for each other and must always drink from fancy glasses.

July 6-8

Interesting Theatre

Love Bertie* by Jock and Emily Warriner

Bertie is a retired professor alone in this cottage home after losing the love of his life. How will he cope? His friends and family have suggestions. They only want to help or do they?

July 13-15

Shoestring Players

Our Town* by Thornton Wilder

This play reflects upon the life cycle within the routine daily events of a small rural town. The drama stems from the milestones of life – growing up, love and marriage, death and continuation. The twenty actors in the cast each help to bring the stories and events of 'our' town to life.

July 20-22

A-Spire Players

Halfway There* by Norm Foster

A new doctor comes to the small town of Stewiacke, Nova Scotia. Can the local ladies contain themselves? What's got the doctor running away from the big city and what will he find in a town halfway between the equator and the North Pole.
Western Canadian Premiere & Amateur Production Premiere

August 10-12

Geritheatrics Theatre Productions

Forget Me Not* by Rob Gee

A comedy that respects and embodies the belief that "laughter is the best medicine". It's poignant ending leaves the audience with the knowledge that "love prevails all things".

August 17-19

RG Productions - Not Medea by Allison Gregory

An exhausted working mother escapes for one night to the sanctuary of the theatre – except the play is one she desperately doesn't want to watch. Myth and magic meet searing truths about parenting, love and desire in this story that begins as Medea – and ends as something else entirely.

August 24-26

A-Spire Players - Suppressed Desires by Susan Glas

A woman goes to a few lectures on psychology and decides she is a psychiatrist. Conflict ensues as she bothers her husband about his dreams and upsets her younger sister.

August 31-September 2 "Double bill"

Marketplace Players

Kidnapping Katie* by Denis Thornton

When two rather hapless friends decide to rob a bank, a chain of events leads to a kidnapping! The question is, who is kidnapping whom? And can three adults ever be a match for one determined twelve year old girl?

The Waiting Room* by Denis Thornton

A sudden, unexpected blizzard hits Winnipeg. A group of patients are forced to spend the night at a medical clinic. It's an uneasy situation, made all the more so by the presence of Skip, a strang young man. And then there's the snake, the mouse and the gerbil. It all adds up to a very different kind of "sleep over"